Student Code of Conduct

The Sixth Form staff wish all students to complete their programs of study successfully and believe that all students will act appropriately to achieve this end. All students are required to observe and adhere to the code of conduct shown below. Failure to do so could lead to disciplinary action.

You are expected to:

Take responsibility for your learning and approach your studies to gain maximum benefit and achievement by:

- completing all class and homework set by teaching staff, submitting work to deadlines, and by catching up on any work through absence
- arriving for registration on time, which begins promptly at 08.50am.
- attending classes promptly and regularly
- informing your tutor of any absence and by providing evidence of illness etc as required
- informing your Tutor and Subject teachers if you experience any difficulties, or if there are reasons why you may not be able to complete work, and, if necessary, seeking help from them
- accepting that examination entry is conditional upon regular attendance and satisfactory completion of class and homework
- accepting that entry at A2 level is conditional of having achieved at least a D at AS level
- accepting that entry at A2 level is conditional of having an attendance record of at least 90%

Respect other people by:

- conducting yourself in accordance with our Equal Opportunities Policy
- not physically or verbally abusing anyone in the Sixth Form
- not hindering the work of any other member of the Sixth Form
- not bringing or encouraging strangers onsite
- switching your mobile phone off except when within the confines of the Sixth Form Common Room

Be responsible for the Health and Safety of yourself and others by:

- following safety rules and fire drill procedures
- Not bringing or using alcohol or illegal substances on site, or coming on site under the influence of alcohol or illegal substances
- not bringing anything on site which could be used as an offensive weapon
- Not smoking anywhere on site
- if in Yr12 the student will remain onsite during the whole timetabled day, only coming off site at lunch if desired. In Yr13 the student can only remain off site if a home-study agreement has been signed
- return consent forms trips with parental signatures and emergency contact numbers before the day of the trip and behave appropriately on all educational visits and on public transport to and from NMBEC, and always use the zebra crossing outside of College

Respect the building and premises by:

- treating all school property with respect by not defacing or vandalising any of the buildings or decoration
- dressing appropriately for school, recognising that jackets, coats, hats and gloves are not to be worn indoors and never in lessons.
- wearing a dress code as required by the school

The following acts will lead to immediate exclusion and possible permanent exclusion:

Bringing or inviting strangers on site; illegal acts including violence, vandalism, use of illegal substances; possession of offensive weapons; racist behaviour or racial harassment; sexist behaviour and sexual harassment of all kinds
